THOUGHT JACKSON WAS A REAL KING.

Good Story of How Two Frenchmen Took Famous Pugilist For Monarch.

JOKE WAS CARRIED TOO FAR.

And as a Result the Famous Colored Fighter Was Hooted and Mobbed At His Paris Hotel.

Although no blue blood coursed through his veins, Peter Jackson, the negro heavyweight pugilist, was once mistaken for a king. It happened in Paris, which city Jackson visited after his fight with Jem Smith in England about fifteen years ago. Jackson's assumption of royalty was the result of a joke played on him by his trainer, Sam Fitzpatrick, who tells the The plan began innnocently enough, but in the end it evolved all concerned in a peck of trouble and compelled Jackson to remain in seclusion for three days in his hotel, in addition to being mobbed and having his life threat-

At that time negroes were a novelty in England and France. In England Jackon was known and easily recognized on the street, because while he was training for Smith the sporting papers published for Smith the sporting papers published for Smith the sporting papers published his picture, and his photographs were on exhibition in the cafes and clubs. Naturally, the first thing the party did was to take in all of the tyncipal places of amusement in the tyncipal places of a musement in the tyncipal places of a farlow wherever he went, and there was considerable speculation as to his identity, Jackson was a quiet sort of a fellow and rarely encouraged conversation or nade friends unless introduced in the conventional way.

Jack Munroe of Butte was defeated in a wrestling match, catch-as-catch-can by Charles ('Yankee') Rogers of Worcester, Mass., at the Olympic Athletic club last night. Rogers won the first fall in II minutes, D seconds, and the second in 13:50.

The board of supervisors of San Francisco has granted a boxing permit for the month of August to the Yosemite club. This club is handling the Jeffries-Munroe match and the issuance of the permit means the meeting of theh heavy-weights Aug. 26.

Mayor Harrison of Chicago has declared that prize fights of every sort, including contests under the guise of "glove contests," must cease in Chicago. He gave Chief of Police O'Nelli strict orders that the mandate be enforced. Numerous exhibitions already arranged have been called off.

Reports from abroad state that Jimmy Michael is regaining his old time form. He defeated Sydney Jenkins in a match race. After filling some racing engagements in Germany he is expected to visit the United States again.

The Sait Lake baseball team of the Pacific National league has gone to Bolse to play the Infants for a week there. What the result will be we dare not even guess. It is to be hoped that the team will win at least one game out of the series. The boys say they feel that their luck has changed. Hope so, because any change must be for the better as it could not be worse. After playing with McCloskey's gang for a week, the team returns for three weeks. The first at home party will be with Spokane, then comes Butte and Bolse. By that time we will have had nearly enough, thanks.

Elmer Meredith came, he saw but did not conquer. It was not his fauit, perhaps. He did the best he could, but from the start he had a hard row to hoe. He did not feel well and the elimate did not agree with him. Then the first week he had with the team there was trouble. Wiggs tried to guy him and within a few days it was a question of Wiggs or Meredith leaving. This had much to do with Wiggs' suspension. Now both are gone. Meredith will probable leave this evening for Springfield, of the Three I league. Good luck to him.

Floyd Krebs was the first American rider to go against F. H. Scheps, the Australian cyclist, and he managed to evolve a winner. The foreigner has only been in the country a few weeks, however, and a return match is expected to show the Rambler racing team man a more formidable competitor for the American championship.

Within a few days there will be a big tournament among local tennis experts to decide the local championship. Every tennis enthusiast in the city will be asked to participate in the matches to be arranged, and already there are several who are in daily practise. It is thought the preliminary events will be pulled off the latter part of this month. On Sunday last several doubles were played on the Miller court. W. L. McLeod and H. Dinwoodey beat George Rust and Harry T. Cleaver a 7 to 5 set, Rust and B. A. M. Froiseth beat McLeod and Cleaver two sets, 6 to 2 and 7 to 5.

"Dummy" Rowan and "Deafy" Thompson, two prizefighters who blew into Evanston last week, have packed their grips and "got." These disciples of the fistic arena entered Jim Down's saloon on Monday and ordered the best that Jim had on ice. After partaking of the cooling beverage, the sluggers took their leave of absence without as much as saying thanks to the bartender. This was too much for Jim's Irish, and he immediately requested that Sheriff James put both of the fighters under arrest. This was done without much ceremony and in the quietness of the night the "fisticuffers" were taken to the railroad track and given a tie pass. They got.—News-Register.
